Notes

1. The requested price increase by John Deere put their new price higher than the originally quoted price from Agrium Advanced Technologies. We contacted Agrium to determine if they were willing to hold their original bid price the same. Agrium was unable to honor their original bid price for these items.
2. The requested price increase by John Deere put their new price higher than the originally quoted price from Diamond R Fertilizer. We contacted Diamond R to determine if they were willing to hold their original bid price the same. Diamond R agreed to honor their original bid price on this item. Therefore, the award for this item now shifts to Diamond R Fertilizer at the quoted price of $1.23/lb.

3. The requested price increase by John Deere put their new price higher than the originally quoted price from Howard Fertilizer. We contacted Howard to determine if they were willing to hold their original bid price the same. Howard was unable to honor their original bid price for this item.

All above changes are effective immediately. Should you have any further questions concerning this matter, please feel free to contact me at (954) 797-1016.

Sincerely,

Herb Hyman, CPPO, CPPB, FCPM, FCPA, FCCN

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations' section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification Instructions. You must cross out Item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

TOWN OF DAVIE
TOWN COUNCIL AGENDA REPORT

TO: Mayor and Councilmembers

FROM/PHONE: Herb Hyman/1016

PREPARED BY: Herb Hyman

SUBJECT: Resolution

AFFECTED DISTRICT: 2

ITEM REQUEST: Schedule for Council Meeting

TITLE OF AGENDA ITEM: BID - A RESOLUTION OF THE TOWN OF DAVIE, FLORIDA, ACCEPTING THE BIDS FOR FERTILIZER.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY: A competitive bid was conducted for the supply of fertilizer which may be needed by the Public Works Department, Capital Projects Department, Parks & Recreation Department and/or the Utilities Department. The Town acted as lead agency for the Southeast Florida Cooperative Purchasing Group for this bid. In addition to the Town of Davie, there are twenty-four (24) other co-op entities that utilize this bid award. The Town sent out specifications to thirteen (13) prospective bidders. Additionally, the bid was advertised state-wide in Florida Bid Reporting and nationally in BidNet and also posted on the Town's web site. The Town received five (5) bids. All bids were evaluated with regard to compliance with the specifications. The recommendation is for the lowest responsive and responsible bidder for each item as identified in Attachment "A". The initial contract is for two (2) years. Fertilizer is a petroleum based product. Due to the volatile nature of the market, vendors are permitted to request price adjustments every six months with appropriate documentation. Adjustments can be downward as well as upward. If a vendor requests an upward price adjustment, the Procurement Manager will check with the next lowest bidder for that item to see if they experienced the same price increase or if they are willing to hold their original price firm. If the second lowest bidder is willing to keep their price firm, award of that item will shift.

KEY POINTS:

- The Town received five (5) competitive bids for the supply of horticultural chemicals.
- The Town acts as "lead agency" for the Southeast Florida Cooperative Purchasing Group for this contract.
- Besides the Town of Davie, there are twenty-four (24) other municipalities participating in this contract.
- The bid will be awarded to the lowest responsive bidder for each product.
- Vendors can request price adjustments every six months due to the volatile nature of the petroleum market.

- Requests for upward price adjustments could cause the award to shift from one vendor to another if the second lowest bidder does not request the price adjustment.

PREVIOUS ACTIONS: n/a

CONCURRENCES: The commercial aspects of the bids were reviewed by the Town's Procurement Manager. The technical aspects of the bid were reviewed by Deanna MacAtamney of the City of Fort Lauderdale.

FISCAL IMPACT: Yes

Has request been budgeted? Yes

If yes, expected cost: Dependent on the quantities needed for approved projects.

Account name and number:

If no, amount needed: $

What account name and number will funds be appropriated from:

Additional Comments: The Town is not obligated to buy any specific quantity of product. All participating agencies can buy as much or as little as they need during the term of the contract.

RECOMMENDATION(S): Motion to approve resolution
